Young Scientist Awards / Karl-Jörg Langenberg Awards on the Occasion of the Kleinheubacher Tagung 2025

As part of our continuing commitment to encouraging the next generation of early-stage researchers, we will offer up to 10 Young Scientist Awards (YSA), three of these YSA recipients will be further selected for Karl-Jörg Langenberg Awards (sponsored by the Thomas-Weiland-Wissenschaftsstiftung and the U.R.S.I. Landesausschuss in Deutschland e.V.) during the course of the conference.

The selection of YSA recipients will be based upon an examination of the documents submitted. Besides originality and creativity, form and clarity of the presented work will be assessed. The YSA includes a certificate, a waiver of conference fees, and a Prize money of 250 €.

All YSA recipients are required to give a talk within a special YSA Session. During this YSA Session, the contributions will be evaluated by an Award Committee. The top three contributions will be awarded a Karl-Jörg Langenberg Award (KLA). In addition to a certificate and the stated prize money, the KLA recipients will receive:

5 000 €	(1 st Prize),
4 000 €	(2 nd Prize), and
3 000 €	(3 rd Prize)

(amounts subject to adjustments should there be multiple winners with the same score). All YSA und KLA recipients will be honored during the Kleinheubacher Tagung 2025.

Terms of Eligibility

Scientists born 1990 or later holding a Diploma or Master degree (received before 1st May 2025) at the minimum are invited to apply. The following documents, written in English only, are to be submitted via <https://kh2025.edas.info/> under the track “Young Scientist Awards” no later than 22 June 2025:
